OCTOBER 2007 NEWSLETTER

Face masks – Effective as of World's 2007 ATA requires all competitors to wear a protective face mask. This mask will provide more protection to the facial area while still allowing good vision of the opponent. We are encouraging all students to purchase one and will make this a necessary piece of gear as of January 1, 2008.

Attention all Black Belts – All Black Belts are required to have an ATA regulation uniform and be a member of the Masters Club. Black Belts differ from color belts in that they no longer wear plain uniforms. For those students who have not upgraded their programs or uniforms please see Lisa to order a new uniform or pick up a specs sheet if you would like to sew the Black belt trim yourself. Please make sure this is taken care of prior to testing. Thank you.

Adult Street Defensive Training – Friday October 26 at 7:00 PM – Mr. Robinson will be teaching the latest techniques related to street defensive tactics. Also to be included practical hand weapons. Class limited to 30. Cost $25.00. 2ND Member $20.00. 3RD member $15.00. Register now.

Kidz 'n Power – The latest statistics reported over 800,000 missing children last year. That's an overwhelming average of more than 2,000 each day. In a time when parents can't keep their children in their sights 100% of the time, the safety offered in Kidz 'n Power is an incredible tool. It helps insure children stay out of harms way and gives them the techniques and confidence to escape a potentially dangerous situation. This DVD series in depth interviews with prominent experts in the fields of psychology, criminology, law enforcement and self defense. A sure way to equip parents to help them equip their children. 3 DVD's in the series including the latest on internet safety for kids. Highly recommended by Mr. Robinson. On sale regularly $39.99 now $19.99 limited supply. Add a child ID kit for $5.00.
